	Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WTTA continues to support the community airing numerous Public Service announcements designed to inform viewers of health and safety issues, drug prevention, and the importance of education and the environment. WTTA produces Tampa Bay Right Now a half hour community show which airs every Sunday at 10pm. Tampa Bay Right Now is completely original programming produced by WTTA and is focused on identifying community issues and happenings and providing information and solutions on each topic. In addition to the resources presented during the program we have established a web page where viewers can learn more and contact us with questions and suggest topics for future shows. WTTA hosted one intern this semester, a Senior in Communications from USF.
